LET ONE EVENT PERFORM THREE JOBS

A dated event can produce a Screening question about the institution, place or change; a Mains question about mechanism, consequences and response; and an interview question about judgement under uncertainty. Preserve one factual core and change the task around it.

TRAP

It also exposes weak notes: a headline that cannot be connected to a stable concept will be hard to retrieve or explain.

WHAT IT HIDES

Preserve one factual core and change the task around it.

REPAIR THE CAUSE, THEN RETEST.

PAUSE + TRY

Convert one event into a one-line fact, a 10-mark outline and a two-minute spoken judgement.
